

Populate the fields in the format "<Field Name> - <Value>" using the below variables mentioned. Do not output as a text table. If there are multiple charges, answer the below questions based on the highest/most serious charge.

1.1.1 Applicable Case?:

The value needs to be a "Yes" or a "No". If the case is after January 1, 2000 and a gender-based violence where the victim is a woman or girl, enter "Yes". Else, enter "No".

1.1.2 Sentencing Decision?:

If the case is not a sentencing decision (i.e., a final judgment without sentencing analysis), enter "No". Otherwise, enter "Yes".

1.1.3 Date: This should be the date of the judgment or sentencing. If there are multiple dates listed, choose the more recent one. Please list the date in the European style (day/month/year)

1.1.4 Country: Enter the relevant country for the case.

1.1.5 City/District: Enter the location of the hearing. If not clear, enter "Unknown."

1.1.6 Appellate case: If the case is from an appellate court or a case that's been appealed, choose "Yes". Otherwise, choose "No". Note – you should enter "Yes" if, for example, the Fiji High Court is reviewing a Magistrate's sentencing.

1.1.7 Type of Case: "SV" is sexual violence when the perpetrator is a partner/ex/family member/someone living in the same household. "DV" is domestic violence when the perpetrator is not a partner/ex/family member/someone living in the same household. Choose all that are applicable:

- (i) "SV" for sexual violence
- (ii) "DV" for domestic violence
- (iii) "Both" for both domestic & sexual violence
- (iv) "Manslaughter/murder" for where the victim has died.

1.1.8 Judicial Officer's Name: Enter the name of the judge(s) with the first name followed by the last name (e.g. Jane Smith). If there is no first name provided, use the first initial followed by the judge's last name. Do not include any titles like Honorable, Sir, President, Justice, Chief Justice, etc.

1.1.9 Anonymity: If the victim is not named, is referred to with a pseudonym, and/or anonymity is expressly granted, enter "Yes." If the victim is not referred to by name, but is otherwise identifiable due to a relationship with the accused, or other factual information provided, enter "No." Otherwise, If the victim's name is revealed, enter "No."

1.1.10 Gender (victim): If the victim is a female, enter "Female". If you cannot determine the gender or the person is non-binary, enter "Other."

- 1.1.11 Age (victim): Enter the age of the victim at the time of the offense, not the time of sentencing. If the victim is under one year, enter "1". If you cannot determine the age, enter "0."
- 1.1.12 Adult or child: If the victim is younger than 18, mark as "Child", otherwise mark as "Adult". If the victim's age is not known, look for other indicators that might indicate whether they are a child or an adult. Otherwise, enter "Unknown".
- 1.1.13 Identify as LGBTQI: If the victim identifies as a member of LGBTQI+ community, enter "Yes" and also mention the sexuality, e.g. "Yes - Lesbian", "Yes - Gay", etc. Otherwise mark "No".
- 1.1.14 Disability: If the victim is disabled, enter "Yes" and also mark the kind of disability, e.g. "Yes - Physical", "Yes - Mental" or "Yes - Both". Otherwise mark "No".
- 1.1.15 Gender (perpetrator): If the perpetrator is a female, enter "Female". If the perpetrator is a male, enter "Male". If you cannot determine the gender or the person is non-binary, enter "Other." Note: If there are multiple Defendants, analyze the Defendant charged with the most serious offense, or if all are equally charged, the Defendant who receives the most analysis in the decision.
- 1.1.16 Age (perpetrator): Enter the age of the perpetrator at the time of the offense, not the time of sentencing. If you cannot determine the age, enter "0".
- 1.1.17 Perpetrator known to victim: If the case mentions that the perpetrator knew the victim before the crime, enter "Yes". If it is mentioned that the perpetrator didn't know the victim then enter "No". If it is not mentioned or not decipherable then enter "Unknown".
- 1.1.18 Relationship with victim: Who is the perpetrator to the victim (e.g., spouse, boyfriend, girlfriend, partner, ex-boyfriend, ex-girlfriend, friend, acquaintance, etc.)? If there is no apparent relationship, enter "None."
- 1.1.19 Guilt: Enter "Plea of Guilt" if the perpetrator pled guilty. Enter "Finding of Guilt" if the perpetrator was found guilty after trial.
- 1.1.20 Pathology report: Choose "Yes" or "No". If a pathology report is referred to in court proceedings as evidence, enter "Yes." If no pathology report is referenced, or the decision explicitly mentions there is no pathology report, enter "No."
- 1.1.21 Medical report: If the victim impact assessment was mentioned by a medical professional during the hearing then enter "Yes". If no medical report is referenced, or the decision explicitly mentions there is no medical report, enter "No".
- 1.1.22 Protection order: If a protection order was entered against the perpetrator to avoid the victim, enter "Yes – Victim." If a protection order was entered against the victim to avoid the perpetrator, enter "Yes - Perpetrator." If no protection order is mentioned or entered, enter "No."
- 1.1.23 Life/death penalty: If the final sentence is life imprisonment, enter "Life". If it is a death penalty, enter "Death". If it is neither, enter "NA".

- 1.1.24 Suspended sentence?: Choose between “Y (Fully)”, “Y (Partially)”, and “N”. If the sentence was partially suspended, enter “Y (Partially)”. If it was fully suspended, enter “Y (Fully)”. If it was not suspended, enter “N”.
- 1.1.25 Prison sentence: Enter “Yes” if a custodial (prison) sentence was given. If a sentence was fully suspended, your answer should always be “No.”
- 1.1.26 Cumulative/concurrent sentence: If the Court states that the sentence is to be served cumulatively or consecutively, enter “Yes - Cumulative”. If the Court states that the sentence is to be served concurrently, enter “Yes - Concurrent”. If you are unsure whether the sentence was consecutive/cumulative or concurrent, enter “Unknown.”
- 1.1.27 Fine/bond: If a fine or bond is mentioned, enter “Yes”. If no fine or bond is mentioned, enter “No”. If you are unsure whether a fine or bond was imposed, enter “Unknown.”
- 1.1.28 Other form of punishment: Describe if any other form of punishment was given. If no other punishment is referenced, enter “None”.
